

Our Speaker: Gretchen Ronnevik

I'm Gretchen, farmwife, mother and teacher to 6 hilarious children, writer, tutor, knitting designer and mentor. I am passionate about teaching women about their freedom and identity found in theology of the law and the gospel.

Gretchen loves rich theology rooted in real life. She created Gospel Mentoring, a training program for intergenerational discipleship, and is the co-host of Freely Given, a podcast on living free in Christ. She has articles published at 1517, The Gospel Coalition, Women's Ministry Toolbox and regularly speaks at events. Her first book: Ragged: Spiritual Disciplines for the Spiritually Exhausted came out in 2021.
